Meanwhile . . . these Test Marketing Editions will shortly become Collectors' items, so purchase your copies before they're archived . . .

The Milford-Haven Audio Novels Available on Cassette and CD

New this year -- the audio book of What the Heart Knows -- including the newly revised text. Continue the story with the audio book of Closer Than You Think (book 2 in the series)

Both are unabridged and performed by the author, complete with various accents and including the original Milford-Haven music.

Haven Books is still enjoying great success with audio books Stickeen, and Travels in Alaska (John Muir classics). Narrated by the "Voice of Alaska NPR" Lee Salisbury, and featuring original sound effects by David L. Krebs and gorgeous original music by Marilyn Harris, both are now available either on cassette or on CD.

The original BBC episodes of Milford-Haven U.S.A. are available on both cassette and CD, and make for fun listening. They feature an all-star professional cast, original sound effects, original music, and compelling story-lines that kept BBC listeners tuning in.

Vicki Hessel Werkley's Girl-On-Fire, winner of the Independent Publisher's Award for 2001 in multi-cultural fiction. This book is rapidly on its way to becoming a classic and is recommended both for adult readers and for young adults.

Mary Shelley--In Her Own Words
Winner of the 2003 Peak Award, this is the professionally produced audio of the one-woman play by Mara Purl & Sydney Swire, complete with special effects, music, and a haunting performance of the author of "Frankenstein."

Erin Gray and Mara Purl's Act Right is a leading Performing Arts text. With anecdotes and humorous stories from behind the scenes in Hollywood, this is a manual for beginning actors; an insider's guide to the film and television business, and just a great read for anyone who enjoys watching TV or film.

Look for the HAVEN BOOKS BOOTH at two major book events this year. L. A. Times Festival of Books Sunday, April 25 on the UCLA campus; and Book Expo America June 3 - 5 at the Javits Convention Center in New York City.

Milford-Haven, U.S.A. is On The Air!!!

For the FIRST time, the hit BBC radio drama is on the air in America! So far, we have just three stations. We hope to expand our broadcast area in 2005.

Milford-Haven comes Home to the Central Coast on KTEA in Cambria

This is where it all started! Cambria---the real town upon which Milford-Haven is loosely based---now has an excellent radio station. Milford-Haven USA is on the air every Sunday evening at 5p.m. and is once again one of the most popular shows on the air.

KCAA 1050 AM San Bernardino

A flagship station for the new Air America network, KCAA is now broadcasting Milford-Haven USA to about 1 million new listeners in California's huge Inland Empire, which encompasses several medium-sized cities and many small towns. One favorite small town is Wrightwood, on the edge of the Angeles Crest National Forest, where the short story "Angel On a Rope" takes place. Listen to Milford-Haven live on Sunday evenings at 4 pm -- we may move to 5 pm. Link from www.milfordhaven.com, or go directly to www.kcaaradio.com.

YUSA Dallas Texas

Created and operated by Bill Bragg Yesterday U.S.A. Radio is an original, just as its owner is. This wonderful station---which broadcasts over the Cable TV channel in Dallas---also has listeners all over the U.S. and all over the world through streaming audio at www.yesterdayusa.com. If you're not in the Dallas area, listen live over the internet on Sunday evenings at 7 pm Eastern time, 4 pm Western time, 5 pm Mountain, 6 pm Central.

The December 04 Book Tour & Radio Show Promotion

Taking advantage of the synergy between the original Milford-Haven radio drama, and the novels based on the show, Mara did 7 book events in California and Colorado.

Actors Terry Gardner and Roger Kern--both member of the original cast, and now getting famous again in the new Haven Books radio campaigns--performed live at Mara's Borders Books signing in San Luis Obispo. For the Barnes & Noble signing in Corona, our broadcast station KCAA provided a banner, as did our Cambria station KTEA for the SLO event.

Mara Purl at Barnes & Noble, San Luis Obispo

Haven Books hosted its first Book Luncheon in Colorado Springs. Organized by Lauren Tyson, who has joined the company as marketing and sales consultant, the event was such a success we plan to do more in the future! Lauren also arranged for Mara to provide the December program to the Women's Literary Club of Colorado Springs, a prestigious hundred-year-old literary group.

A very special treat for Mara was reading her stories to patients at Evans Army Hospital, Fort Carson, Colorado on Christmas Eve.
