Haven Books Audio

Our audio division both publishes and produces award-winning audio products, sometimes in partnership with other publishers.

In 2009 we were honored that Little Moose Press chose us to produce their great titles, the Allie Armington Mystery Series by award-winning author Louise Gaylord. Performed by our author and well-known performer Mara Purl, Spa Deadly is already wowing Louise's many readers, and attracting more as listeners. Mara will perform two more in 2010. Find these wonderful books and audio books at: www.LittleMoosePress.com or www.LouiseGaylord.com

Haven Books regularly donates to libraries. In 2009 the library to which we donated to most this year was the Navajo Nation Library in Window Rock, Arizona.

We hope to arrange for some of our authors to visit and present programs in 2010. Visit their website at <http://www.nnlib.org>.

HB Consulting

DO YOU HAVE A BOOK IN YOU? The publishing world is shifting and changing on a monthly, weekly, even daily basis. E-Books, downloads, print-on-demand, multiple print formats, traditional publishing, small press, independent publishing . . . what does it all mean?

Because many people do have a book they're eager to do, yet have no idea how to proceed, we launched HB Consulting. We're a team of experts, and work with our clients to create outlines, drafts, complete manuscripts, websites, events, marketing plans, and more. Contact us to discuss your project! For an overview of services, check HavenBooks.net/Consulting.

Haven Books Consulting is working on multiple projects with several clients. We completed two wonderful projects during 2009.

Here's an introduction to this year's outstanding clients. We not only wish them success. We know their projects are already successful.

Cherel Ito
Through the Lens of Her Camera

www.CherelltoBook.com

Haven Books Consulting client Mimi Feldman worked with us on this spectacular book featuring her late daughter's photographs and journals. This year we created her outstanding website. The book led to an exhibition at the National Women's Museum, and the book is now carried in museum shops across the U.S.

MOON CHROME

Haven Books Consulting client E.H. Waddell worked with us to create her outstanding book of poetry.

We put together a team that included experts in poetry, interior design, cover design, marketing materials, and more.

We then introduced her to Infinity Publishing, who published her book in both hard cover and soft cover. www.InfinityPublishing.com.

The book is an artistic and critical triumph, and her book launch at the renowned Garcia Book Store in Santa Fe was a great success.

Find out more about the author at the website we designed www.EHWaddell.com.

Our Menu of services includes: Complete editorial from outline through manuscript; script consulting and adaptation; web design; book interior & cover design; PR & Marketing; goal-setting and career planning; and more.

We say "more" because each client is utterly unique. We put together teams of experts that are equally unique to suit the needs and goals of each author with whom we work. It's always a challenge, always a privilege. Contact us for rates and details. Info@HavenBooks.net.

PURCHASE all our client's books through their own websites, or at www.amazon.com. Many are also carried at other sites and bookstores, always listed on their own websites.
